Frequently Asked Questions

1. Do I need to be wealthy to leave a legacy gift?

Not at all. Many people choose to leave a small portion of their estate to a cause they care about. Every gift – large or small – helps build a better future.

2. What kind of will should I make?

- Holographic will: Handwritten, signed, and dated by you. Legally valid in Belgium, but should be stored safely and ideally reviewed by a notary.
- Authentic (notarial) will: Prepared with a notary. Offers more legal certainty.
- International will: Valid in many countries under the Washington Convention of 1973.

Speak with your notary to choose the type that best fits your situation.

3. What kind of legacy can I leave?

- Specific legacy: A particular amount of money or a named asset (e.g. €5,000 or a painting).
- General legacy: A percentage of your total estate.
- Universal legacy: Your entire estate or what remains after other gifts.

4. How much inheritance tax will apply to my gift?

In Belgium, charities benefit from preferential inheritance tax rates:

- Flanders: 0%
- Brussels & Wallonia: 7%

Note: Tax rates are subject to change and may vary based on your personal circumstances. Please consult your notary for current details.

For more information on the details of inheritance tax, please visit this website.

5. What if I own property abroad?

Assets located outside Belgium may be subject to double taxation. However, Belgium offers partial relief in some cases. Your notary can advise you on your specific situation.

6. Can I change my will later?

Yes – you can update or revoke your will at any time. It's a good idea to review it regularly to make sure it still reflects your wishes.

7. What's the difference between a will and a lifetime gift?

- A gift (donation) is made during your lifetime and is usually irrevocable.
- A legacy is part of your will and only takes effect after your passing.

Both options can help support our mission. Contact us if you'd like to explore them.

8. Do I need to inform you if I include Pax Christi in my will?

You're under no obligation, but letting us know allows us to thank you and share how your gift can make a long-term impact. Your information will remain confidential.
